NEW! ANNUAL MEETING & RAFFLE

Remember when the Annual Meeting involved chatting with old (and new!) League friends over lunch at a local restaurant and then enjoying the featured speaker? Hopefully we can return to that next year. In the meantime, we thought we'd put a twist on this year's virtual meeting by raffling off some suffrage-themed items (books, DVDs) that might be of interest. To be eligible for the raffles, you must 'attend' the meeting and stay until the end. That's it! Join the Zoom call, stay for the entire meeting, and then be 'present' to win.

We hope to see you at our virtual meeting on Tuesday, June 29th, 7 pm. Please stay tuned for the Zoom log-in information, which will be sent via email by our president, Eileen Nadelson, closer to the meeting.

We will be voting on the budget, slate, programs, and bylaw changes – all of which were sent out at the end of May. Please email LWVNEW if you did not receive the items up for a vote and we will send them again.

VOTER SERVICE: CANDIDATE FORUM

LWVNEW held a virtual candidate forum on the evening of June 9th. The event featured Bedford Supervisor MaryAnn Carr and Bedford Deputy Supervisor Ellen Calves, the two candidates running in the Democratic primary on June 22nd. The winner of the primary will go on to represent the Democratic party in November's election for Bedford Town Supervisor.

Questions for the candidates were collected via our email address. If you didn't catch the forum and would like to watch – or would like to see it again -- go to our website and click on the link at either the Events or Elections & Voting page.

VOTER SERVICE: PRIMARY DAY IS JUNE 22

In our area, there is a Democratic primary for County Clerk and a Democratic primary in Bedford (the aforementioned Town Supervisor contest).

Early voting continues through Sunday, June 20th. The EV schedule and local polling places can be found on the Elections & Voting page of our website – as can information about absentee voting. Election Day is Tuesday, June 22nd, with polls open from 6 am until 9 pm.
